In our long-standing commitment to ensuring transparency and compliance with state and federal policy, St. Catherine University makes available to prospective and current students a wide array of institutional information including: financial aid and financial procedures; health and safety; student outcomes; student privacy with regard to educational records, and general institutional.

Students can access this information in a number of ways. Directly contacting an office with specific responsibility for the requested information is one excellent approach. Students can also use the University's website by going directly to a specific office's webpage (e.g. Registrar (<http://stkate.imodules.com/redirect.aspx?linkID=2196&eid=31128>), Financial Aid Office (<http://stkate.imodules.com/redirect.aspx?linkID=2195&eid=31128>), Student Accounts (<https://www.stkate.edu/academics/student-accounts/>), Academic Affairs (<http://stkate.imodules.com/redirect.aspx?linkID=2193&eid=31128>), Public Safety Office (<http://stkate.imodules.com/redirect.aspx?linkID=2192&eid=31128>) or the Office of Student Affairs) or the University Policies website and the resources located there, including the Student Right-to-Know link (<https://www.stkate.edu/about/consumer-information/>).

Questions about this information should be directed to the Office of Student Affairs, 305 Derham Hall, or studentaffairs@stkate.edu, 651-690-6778.
